REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES.

The Trustees of St. LUKE'S HOME FOR CONVALESCENTS present to its friends and the public the seventeenth Annual Report of its condition and of its work for the past year, embraced in the account and statement of the Treasurer, the reports of the Chaplain, Secretary of the Lady Associates, the Treasurer and Secretary of the "Outside Relief Fund," the Physicians in charge, and a detailed statement of the Subscriptions and Donations.

The Treasurer's account shows a total receipt from Subscriptions, Donations, and Miscellaneous Offerings, of $6,355.37, against $6,605.59 in 1887. The expenses of Maintenance, Repairs, Improvements, and Insurance are $8,181.30, against $7,617.47 last year.

The number of patients maintained was 270, an increase of 30 over last year. The extra cost of maintenance was about $240 over that of 1887.

As shown by the several reports, the work of the past year has been satisfactory and encouraging, and has received the same wise and thoughtful management as heretofore.

The Trustees feel that they can again justly commend the value and importance of the HOME, and express the hope that its work will continue to receive the support and interest of all.

A legacy of five hundred dollars has been received from the late R. Gardner Emmons, of Boston.

WALLACE H. HAM,
Secretary.

REPORT OF THE LADY ASSOCIATES.

Although we are but repeating an oft-told tale, we can say with truth that ST. LUKE'S HOME has done a good work during the past year. Few of the patients have left it without being better both physically and mentally, and all have realized the kindness, wisdom, and energy of the Matron exerted in their behalf.

The wheels of the domestic machinery have moved on with great regularity, and no efforts have been spared to accomplish all that could conduce to the welfare and comfort of the inmates. We have many and substantial tokens from those old friends who never forget our needs, and new helpers have come forward to show their interest in the HOME. Fresh and fragrant flowers have brightened the wards, fruit and dainties have tempted the failing appetites, and the B. Y. M. C. U. have provided the means for change of scene, and air, and exercise.

Our warm interest goes with those who leave the HOME, strengthened by their sojourn there, to take up the labor they had relinquished by reason of sickness and suffering. We often hear of their improvement, and receive their thanks for all that was done to benefit them. We feel that the widespread influence for good, and the religious atmosphere of ST. LUKE'S HOME, has given opportunity for consideration to the thoughtless, and led some to think of holy things for the first time in their lives.

The peace and prosperity which have prevailed in ST. LUKE'S HOME during the last twelve months make us more anxious and ready to serve it faithfully in the future.

H. C. HASBROUCK,
Secretary.

HOTEL HUNTINGTON, October 1, 1888.

ST. LUKE'S OUTSIDE RELIEF FUND.

During the past year six women have received money from the fund. Four have had their room rent paid monthly, and the others were aided many weeks each.

CHAPLAIN'S REPORT.

To the Board of Trustees of St. Luke's Home for Convalescents:

Since the Festival of St. Luke, 1887, the Church's service has been rendered in the Chapel, Sunday by Sunday, as also on Christmas day, the Feast of the Circumcision, Epiphany, Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Easter Even,—on which day the bishop made his annual visitation,—and on Ascension day. From Advent Sunday until Easter there has also been a Thursday-evening service, followed by a reading on the life of Christ.

Four candidates have been confirmed at the hands of the Bishop of the Diocese: two at the Church of the Advent, November 25, kindly presented by the Rev. George S. Pine, and two presented by myself at St. Luke's Church, Chelsea, on the 23d of February. There has been a monthly celebration of the Holy Communion in the Chapel.

Thanks are due, as in past years, to the clergy and musical staff of St. John's Church, Boston Highlands, for many kindnesses.

Respectfully submitted,

M. L. KELLNER.

BY-LAWS OF THE ST. LUKE'S OUTSIDE RELIEF FUND.

---

PREAMBLE.—The Lady Associates of St. Luke's Home for Convalescents have established an adjunct to this charity, which has been named “THE ST. LUKE'S OUTSIDE RELIEF FUND.” This is under the management of an Executive Committee chosen by and from the Lady Associates.

OBJECT.—The object of the Fund is to aid those women ill with chronic diseases who can in part earn their own living. Also to give temporary assistance to poor and friendless women at the time of, and after, their discharge from St. Luke's Home for Convalescents.

BY-LAWS.

I. Aid can be given to none but those who have been patients of St. Luke's Home for Convalescents, and who are not inmates of any other institution.

II. The permanent property of the Fund shall be held in trust by the Trustees of St. Luke's Home for Convalescents, who shall pay the income from the investments to the Lady Associates, and shall make a statement of the same in their yearly report, and to the Lady Associates.

III. Only the income from the invested means, and the annual subscriptions, unless some special gifts may be made for the purposes of the fund, may be used. Should this not all be needed, the surplus shall be returned to the Trustees for investment. No part of the principal shall be spent.

IV. The Executive Committee shall consist of five women belonging to the Lady Associates of St. Luke's Home for Convalescents, to be elected annually, and to hold office until their successors shall be elected. They shall elect three of their number to fill the offices of President, Secretary, and Treasurer, unless they shall deem it advisable that the duties of the last two be performed by the same person. In case of a vacancy the Committee shall choose a Lady Associate to fill it.

V. The Executive Committee shall meet immediately after the monthly meeting of the Lady Associates; and the Secretary and Treasurer shall read reports of the doings of the preceding month. They shall present annual reports to the Trustees and the Lady Associates.

VI. The President may call a meeting whenever it is necessary.

VII. No allowance can be made for a longer term than three months, but it may be renewed at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

VIII. No assistance can be given without the consent of three members of the Committee.

IX. These By-Laws may be suspended or altered only by the unanimous consent of all present at any regular meeting of the Lady Associates, when a notice of such alteration has been given previous to such meeting by the Secretary.
